ALPINE SECURITIES CORPORATION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2019

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business. Alpine Securities Corporation (the Company) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Utah on January 11, 1984, as a securities broker and dealer dealing principally in over-the-counter securities. The Company, located in Salt Lake City, Utah, is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Security trades are made with both customers and other security brokers and dealers. Customers are located in states in which the Company is registered. Wholesale trading is conducted with other brokers and dealers throughout the United States. Revenue is derived principally from trading in securities on its own account and trading in securities for customers for which a commission is received. The Company also clears securities transactions for correspondents and charges transaction fees.

Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents. All highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition are classified as cash and cash equivalents. Cash equivalents consist primarily of highly liquid investments in time deposits held in banks.

Participant's Segregated Cash. Alpine Securities receives cash from Participants for the exclusive benefit of the Participant's customers in compliance with SEC rule 15c3-3 (customer protection).

Accounts Receivable. Accounts receivable are stated at cost, net of allowance. The Company establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts for accounts receivable to ensure the Company has not overstated receivable balances due to uncollectability. The Company determines the need for an allowance based on a variety of factors, historical experience and on the potential illiquidity of the collateral.

Clearing Fund. Margin deposits and participant contributions are maintained within the clearing fund on the Statement of Financial Condition due to the benefits and risk ownership being accrued to the Company. Deposits and contributions may be in the form of cash and cash equivalents and securities. These deposits may be applied to satisfy obligations of the depositing participant, other participants, or the Company as provided in the Company rules.

Property and Equipment. Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Routine maintenance, repairs and replacement costs are expensed as incurred and improvements that appreciably extend the useful life of the assets are capitalized. When equipment is sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in income. Property and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the related carrying amount may not be recoverable.

Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight line method over their useful lives or the remaining term of the related lease, whichever is shorter. Furniture and equipment are depreciated over estimated useful lives ranging from five to seven years, using straight line methods. Building improvements are primarily amortized over 39 years using the straight line method. Depreciation expense for leasehold improvements, furniture and equipment, and building improvements is included in depreciation and amortization in the accompanying Statements of Income.

NOTE 10 LINE OF CREDIT

An existing related party senior line of credit for $5,000,000 opened with Alpine Securities Holding Corporation (the Lender) with an interest rate of 120% per annum was called by the Lender on September 30, 2019. The amount payable on this line of credit as of September 30, 2019 was $2,000,000. On September 30, 2019, SCA Clearing LLC (the Parent) acquired this debt from the Lender and converted $1,000,000 of the debt into equity leaving $1,000,000 due to the Parent.

NOTE 11 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

Settlement of Securities Transactions. The Company is obligated to settle transactions with brokers and other financial institutions even if its customers fail to meet their obligations to the Company. Customers are required to complete their transactions on the settlement date, generally two business days after trade date. If customers do not fulfill their contractual obligations, the Company may incur losses. The Company has established procedures to reduce this risk by requiring deposits from customers for certain types of trades.

Leases. The Company maintains a four year and six month lease commitment for its office facility in Salt Lake City which the landlord may terminate upon adequate notice. None of its office space is sub-leased to any party.

Legal. During the normal course of business, the Company is, from time to time, involved as a defendant in civil actions involving customers, vendors, former employees, and others.

The Company is involved in two regulatory enforcement actions. The first was initiated in 2017 by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the U.S. Southern District of New York. All fact discovery, expert discovery, and dispositive motions have been completed. On December 11, 2018, the Court granted the SEC partial summary judgment on the SEC's claim that Alpine had violated the books and records provisions of Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-8 thereunder, entitled "Financial recordkeeping and reporting of currency and foreign transactions." On October 9, 2019, the Court issued a civil penalty in the amount of $12,000,000 in connection the books and records violations. Immediately thereafter, Company filed an emergency motion for a stay pending appeal with the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, which the Circuit granted on November 21, 2019. Accordingly, the penalty judgment is not in effect pending the outcome of the appeal. The Company, with advice of outside legal counsel, have assessed the matter and have concluded, although an adverse final judgement after appeal is possible, such a judgement is not probable. As a result, no provision has been made in the financial statements.

The second regulatory matter concerns a FINRA Enforcement Action filed July 25, 2019. In the complaint FINRA alleges Company charged excessive fees. Company has denied these allegations. The hearing is scheduled to take place in February 2020.

NOTE 12 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Parent converted the remaining $1,000,000 of debt due the Parent into equity on October 31, 2019. The Company has determined that there are no other material events that require adjustment to the recorded amounts or disclosures.

The Statement of Financial Condition filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5(d) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 is available for examination at the Company's main office located at 39 Exchange Place, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111 and at the Salt Lake City Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.
