The undersigned (the "Customer") confirms that it has requested Alpine Securities Corporation ("Alpine") to effect the above securities transaction for the Customer's account on an "unsolicited" basis.

In order to induce Alpine to accept the above order (the "Order"), the Customer represents and warrants to Alpine as follows and understands that Alpine is relying on such representations and warranties in connection therewith:

1. The Order is being placed at the initiative and direction of the Customer. The Order was not solicited or recommended by Alpine or any of its representatives.
2. The Customer made the decision to purchase or sell the security listed above based on the Customer's own research and information, or on research and information obtained from a source other than Alpine and its representatives, and neither Alpine nor any of its representatives had any input into the Customer's decision to place the Order.
3. The Customer understands that Alpine and its representatives did not make any recommendation to the Customer with respect to the Order and they have not made any determination as to the suitability of the transaction for the Customer.
4. If this is the Customer's first transaction in this security,
 - (a) the Customer first learned about the security from _____.
 - (b) the Customer first learned about the security on or about (specify date): _____.
5. The Customer understands that unsolicited/non-recommended orders are exempt from the requirements of SEC Rules 15g-2, 15g-3, 15g-5, 15g-6 and 15g-9 which are designed to provide additional protection to purchasers of "penny stocks" as defined by Section 3(a)(51) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and that if the order pertains to a penny stock, the Customer will not receive the benefits or protection of such rules.

In consideration of Alpine's execution of the Order, the Customer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Alpine harmless from and against any claims, damages, losses or liabilities it may incur as a result of any material misstatement or omission in the information provided by Customer herein.

In Witness Whereof, the Customer has executed this Confirmation of Unsolicited/Non-Recommended Order as of the date set forth below.
